

FIAF IN SOUTH AFRICA

Dear Colleagues,

In four months we shall be hosting the 67th FIAF Congress, the first to take place in South Africa. We look forward to share with you our beautiful city, Pretoria/Tshwane.

In this second newsletter, you will find the Programme of Events, as well as information about a choice of hotels in Hatfield, Pretoria.

Please find enclosed the Registration form and useful information for planning your trip.

The FIAF Congress activities will take place at the National Library of South Africa and at the National Film, Video and Sound Archives, Pretoria.

Please do not hesitate to contact us for further information if you have any questions.

It is the wish of the Department of Arts and Culture, the National Archives and Records Services and the National Film, Video and Sound Archives of South Africa that your stay in our capital, Pretoria, will be an unforgettable experience.

Please accept our warm regards from Pretoria.

SINCERELY,
Ms. Mandy Gilder

Message from the FIAF President:
Don't forget! 2011 is an Elections Year !!

May I bring to your attention that Pretoria 2011 is an election year! We will be pleased to salute you as a voting delegate, therefore please do not forget to meet the basic FIAF obligations, the delivery of the annual reports and the payment of the annual fees, otherwise you will not be entitled to vote for the new Executive Committee. If you do not intend to attend the Congress this year, please do not forget to extend proxy to another delegate of your choice. An attending delegate may represent up to 2 persons that are entitled to vote.

With warm regards,
Hisashi Okajima
FIAF President

NEWSLETTER NO. 2

ACCOMODATION

We have selected hotels in Hatfield Pretoria located around 6kms from the congress venue. A shuttle service will be provided from hotels to the congress venue.

TRANSPORTATION

The OR Tambo International Airport is the major gateway offering both Domestic, Africa regional and International connections. It is located 45 minutes from Pretoria and offers a good choice of rental cars and shuttles.

PASSPORT AND VISA

Delegates are invited to check passport and visa requirements with their embassies and South African missions in their countries before departing. Also go to www.home-affairs.gov.za

CURRENCY

The South African currency is Rand (ZAR). Money can be easily exchanged at the airport, exchange bureau and hotels. Automated teller machines (ATMs) linked to all international networks, are available through out Pretoria. Visa and Mastercard are accepted almost everywhere, while American Express and Diners Club are also accepted.

SYMPOSIUM

The topic of the 67th Congress will be "Indigenous Audio-Visual Heritage in Africa and Around the World."

SECOND CENTURY FORUM
OPEN FORUM

Second Century Forum and Open Forum subjects will include subjects such as: "Film Programming in the Age of Transition", and "New Membership Models"

FILM PROGRAMS

Special film programs including indigenous productions from all continents will be screened.
