Visas

All delegates are reminded to obtain any necessary visas for entry into Israel. This is a bureaucratic procedure which can take time. If you need help or special letters of invitation, please let us know.

Evening Screenings

The Programming Commission of FIAF has prepared a unique series of film screenings which will be presented as part of the Congress. Details to come!

Registration Fees

All attendees are reminded to return their Congress Registration Forms which were mailed to all FIAF affiliates with Newsletter no. 2. Please complete the form and send it together with your hotel reservation form. Please note that the "Symposium Only" category does not include the Walking Tour of Jerusalem and the Excursion to Massada.

Lunches

There is a fee for the lunches during the two days of symposium and two days of General Assembly. The lunch break will not be long enough to permit access to restaurants in the city. We would like to encourage you to sign up for lunches in advance so that the restaurant staff can be well-prepared.

Local Tours

If you require assistance in making arrangements for local tours after the Congress, please let us know. We will do our best to help you and to send you information concerning tours available to all parts of the country.

Have you made your plane reservations yet?

Our travel agent tells us that April is a very busy time of the year and that seats on flights to Ben Gurion Airport (Tel Aviv) fill up very fast. So, please book soon!
