

FIAF

INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF FILM ARCHIVES

OPENING OF THE 24th ANNUAL CONGRESS

at the National Film Theatre

23rd May, 1968

3.30 OPENING CEREMONY

Professor Sir William Coldstream, C.B.E., Chairman of the Board of Governors, British Film Institute

HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS MARGARET, COUNTESS OF SNOWDON

Professor Jerzy Toeplitz, President,
International Federation of Film Archives

(French translations of these speeches can be heard on the headphones to be found in the arms of your seats)

4.00 NATIONAL FILM THEATRES OF THE WORLD

Gertie the Trained Dinosaur (U.S.A., 1909, Directed by Winsor McCay)

Piano Accompaniment by Arthur Dulay

Seven Footprints to Satan (U.S.A., 1929, Directed by Benjamin Christensen)

Orchestra directed by Louis Voss

5.20 The National Anthem

Please collect your coats and board the buses at the front of the theatre